Significant Investor Visa and Investor Visa Applications

The Fund is not authorised, endorsed or guaranteed by the Australian Government or the Department of Home Affairs.

If an applicant is applying to become an Investor in the Fund, then it is the responsibility of that applicant (and not the Trustee nor the Investment Manager) to ensure that it meets all of its obligations and requirements that relate to its application for, and grant of, a provisional or permanent Significant Investor Visa or Investor Visa.

An investment in the Fund in itself does not entitle the Investor to a Significant Investor

Visa or Investor Visa, and neither the Trustee, Investment Manager nor any of their associates, make any representation, warranty or guarantee that an investment in the Fund in itself will secure the grant of a Significant Investor Visa or Investor Visa to the Investor. The Trustee, Investment Manager and their associates, accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage arising from an Investor relying on its investment in the Fund as securing the grant of a Significant Investor Visa or Investor Visa.

Eligible SIV and IV funds and who can invest

The Australian Government introduced changes to the Significant Investor Visa framework which would apply to applicants invited to apply for the Significant Investor Visa on or after 1 July 2021 (New SIV Regime).

This New SIV Regime has different rules and applications to the SIV Regime rules that applied to applicants who were invited to apply for the Significant Investor Visa from 1 July 2015 to 30 June 2021 (Old SIV Regime).

Among other changes, the New SIV Regime revised the proportions of the investment amount to be made into each of the three categories of investments under the Complying Investment Framework (CIF).

The Complying Investment Framework would also apply to applicants invited to apply for the Investor Visa (IV) from 1 July 2021 (New IV Regime), under changes also introduced to the IV.

It is intended the Fund will be a complying investment under the New SIV Regime, the Old SIV Regime, and the New IV Regime. However, the investment amounts to be made into each of the three categories of investments under the Complying Investment Framework (CIF) will differ for each Investor, depending on when that Investor was invited to apply for the SIV or IV.

For more information on the SIV and IV investment guidelines and the CIF, refer to section 4 of this IM.

You do not have to be the holder of, or an applicant for, a Significant Investor Visa (SIV Investor) or Investor Visa (IV Investor) to invest in the Fund. Anyone who is a Qualifying Investor can invest in the Fund.

Venture Capital Fund

In order to comply with the Old SIV Regime and New IV Regime, at least $0.5 million of an Investor's $5 million or $2.5 million investment (respectively) must be invested into a venture capital fund. In order to comply with the New SIV Regime, at least $1 million of an Investor's $5 million investment must be invested into a venture capital fund. The Trustee has entered into a distribution agreement with Vantage Private Equity Management Partnership, LP (ILP: L0000417A), a third party operator of a regulated venture capital fund known as the Vantage Private Equity Growth 5 (VPEG5).

Please note investment in the venture capital fund is not effected pursuant to this IM. The venture capital fund has its own information memorandum and rules and investors should read those and form their own view.

If you choose to invest in VPEG5, then you agree to the power of attorney made in the Application Form by signing the Application Form.

LETTER TO INVESTOR

Dear Investor,

Rainwater Capital Pty Ltd (Rainwater Capital), as Investment Manager, is delighted to present to you an opportunity to invest in the Rainwater Capital Investment Fund (Fund).

Rainwater Capital is a Melbourne based real estate advisory and funds management firm. We work with overseas clients to understand their investment requirements, and leverage on our extensive knowledge and networks in Australia to help them seek out suitable investment opportunities in Australia.

The management of Rainwater Capital has more than 20 years' experience across real estate investment, finance, and funds management spanning Singapore, China, and Australia. Our Asia-Pacific exposure has equipped us with an intimate understanding of the region, while our Australian base has allowed us to stay on top of the market to discern investment opportunities here.

The Fund provides investors access to a range of SIV and IV qualifying investments including:

- Emerging Companies Investments
- Venture Capital and Growth Private Equity Funds (VCPEFs) investments
- Balancing Investments

For many SIV and IV applicants, the investments they make under the respective Visa program requirements would be their first or single largest investment in Australia. Understandably, most of these Investors would prefer to adopt a more conservative investment approach. The Fund seeks to meet the investment priorities of SIV and IV Investors as far as possible. The emphasis of the Fund is on preserving capital - avoiding excessive risk while providing a commensurate investment return.

The Fund has an independent trustee, Vasco Custodians Pty Ltd (Vasco or Trustee). Vasco is part of a corporate trustee group that provides responsible entity, trustee and fund administration services to Australian and international investment managers. The Vasco team has significant experience in the Asia Pacific region in the management of equity funds, fixed income funds, REITs, private equity real estate funds, real estate securities funds, and mortgage and real estate debt funds. Some of the funds Vasco's executives have developed include the $3 billion Australian Unity Healthcare Property Trust and the $1.5 billion AIMS Industrial REIT listed on the Singapore Stock Exchange (SGX).

I invite you to read through this IM (including Section 8 entitled "Risks") to allow you to make an informed decision before investing in the Fund.

Yours sincerely

Wallace Woon

Director

Rainwater Capital Pty Ltd

3. INVESTMENT STRATEGY AND OBJECTIVE

3.1 Overview

The management of Rainwater Capital Pty Ltd ('Rainwater Capital') has considerable investment and funds management experience. Rainwater Capital has been appointed investment and asset manager to research, advise on and monitor the performance of complying investments for the Fund as outlined in this IM.

Immigration to Australia under the Significant Investor Visa (SIV) program was first introduced in 2012 to provide a 4-year pathway to Australia for permanent residency for migrants who invest at least $5 million into a portfolio of complying investments.

In July 2015 the Australian Government implemented major changes to the SIV program. One of the key changes was the introduction of a Complying Investment Framework (CIF), which stipulated three categories of complying investments, namely Venture Capital and Growth Private Equity Funds (VCPEF) investments, Emerging Companies Investments, and Balancing Investments.

The policy intent of these changes was to channel SIV monies into areas of the Australian economy which the Australian Government believed required more capital support, which would more effectively promote investment, innovation and commercialisation of Australian ideas, research and development.

In July 2021, the SIV program and the CIF were further revised. Among other changes, the mandated investment amount for VCPEF was increased and that for Balancing Investments reduced. At the same time, changes were also made to another visa category, the Investor Visa (IV), with the revised CIF introduced to the IV as well.

The Fund has been established to allow SIV Investors access to a range of qualifying investments under the SIV rules applying since July 2015, and IV Investors access to the same range of qualifying investments under the IV rules applying since July 2021.

Access to the Emerging Companies Investment and Balancing Investments will be made available by investment in the two Unit classes of the Fund, the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Unit Class (Emerging Companies Unit Class) and the Rainwater Capital Balancing Unit Class (Balancing Unit Class). The money raised from the Emerging Companies Unit Class will be invested into Emerging Companies Investments (through the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund) and the money raised from the Balancing Unit Class will be invested into Balancing Investments (through the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund). See section 5.1 for further information on the Fund's structure.

Access to VCPEFs will also be managed on each Investor's behalf. However, the investment itself will not be an asset of the Fund, but will be held by each Investor. This structure has been adopted to take advantage of tax concessions which are available to investors of VCPEFs under Australian tax laws which may not be accessible if the same investment were made via the Fund.

The Trustee has appointed Rainwater Capital Pty Ltd as the Investment Manager for the purposes of marketing the Fund to investors and managing the investments of the Fund with a view to achieving returns for Investors.

3.2 Strategy and Objective

For many SIV and IV applicants, the investments they make under the respective Visa program requirements would be their first or single largest investment in Australia. Understandably, most of these Investors would prefer to adopt a more conservative investment approach. The objective of the Rainwater Capital Investment Fund is to support the SIV and IV policy intent of the Australian government, while meeting the investment priorities of SIV and IV Investors as far as possible.

Rainwater Capital has rigorously researched the market to identify suitable investments for the Fund and conducted robust due diligence on each of the investments. The emphasis is on preserving capital – avoiding excessive risk and providing a commensurate investment return. In all cases, the investments must be SIV and IV compliant.

Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund

The strategy of the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund is to invest in SIV and IV compliant emerging companies funds that invest primarily in companies listed on an Australian stock exchange with a market cap of less than $500m at the time of first purchase by the fund. These funds should adopt a non- speculative, conservative approach, focusing on companies with sustainable business models and attractive investment qualities, with medium to long term growth potential.

The Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund may invest in the Prime Value SIV Emerging Companies Fund (Prime Value Fund) and/or other emerging companies funds that are aligned to the above strategy.

The Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund may also invest up to 20% of the fund's net assets in cash held by Australian ADIs.

Each of the Prime Value Fund and/or other emerging companies funds that the Fund may invest in meets the Australian

Department of Home Affairs' SIV and IV requirements as a compliant 'managed investment fund' investing in 'Emerging Companies Investments'.

Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund

The strategy of the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund is to invest in one or more SIV and IV compliant unlisted commercial property funds that invest in commercial property, including but not limited to properties in the industrial, office, retail, hospitality and healthcare property sectors. These funds should have the potential to pay attractive distributions and exhibit the potential for capital growth.

The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may invest in unlisted commercial property funds that are involved in development projects as part of their investment portfolio, but will not invest in funds that are exclusively focused on development projects. The investment criteria for these funds where some development is occurring will be different to the criteria for commercial property funds which are focused on leasing activity. In addition, a distribution payment to investors from funds that engage in development activity cannot be guaranteed.

The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may also invest in one or more SIV and IV compliant unlisted property mortgage funds that provide loans to borrowers for the development, investment, acquisition or improvement of commercial property. All loans within such investments may be secured by either a first or second mortgage of commercial real asset as the primary source of security.

As suitable unlisted commercial property fund and unlisted property mortgage fund investment opportunities are not always available, to ensure compliance with SIV and IV regulations, the Fund may invest in the Prime Value SIV Enhanced Income Fund (Fixed Income Fund) and/or other fixed income funds, until such time as a suitable unlisted commercial property fund or unlisted property mortgage fund investment opportunity becomes available.

The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may also invest up to 20% of the fund's net assets in cash held by Australian ADIs.

Each of the unlisted commercial property funds, unlisted property mortgage funds, the Fixed Income Fund and/or other fixed income funds that the Fund may invest in meets the Australian Department of Home Affairs Significant Investor Visa (SIV) and Investor Visa (IV) requirements as a compliant 'managed investment fund' investing in 'Balancing Investments'.

Review of Investments

The Investment Manager shall review the investments of the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund and the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund from time to time to ensure that the investments remain compliant to SIV and IV regulations, continue to be substantially aligned to the stated Investment Strategy, and stay relevant to market conditions and available investment opportunities.

Where necessary, the Investment Manager may invest in other SIV and IV compliant 'Emerging Companies Investments' and 'Balancing Investments' through the existing the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund and the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund, or establish new Sub-Funds to make such investments.

Risk Management

Should market conditions call for it, the Investment Manager may also take additional measures aimed at the preservation of capital of the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund and the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund. For example, within the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund, the Investment Manager may increase the allocation of investments to the Fixed Income Fund and/or other fixed income funds, and reduce the allocation of investments to unlisted commercial property funds and/or unlisted property mortgage funds. Such measures will be made known to Investors in Investor Updates.

3.3 Borrowings

The Fund does not intend to borrow. However, some of the funds that the Fund chooses to invest in may borrow.

3.4 Valuation Policy

The Trustee maintains and complies with a written valuation policy, which is reviewed at least annually or as market circumstances dictate. This policy may be updated from time to time and is available on the Trustee's website at www.vascofm.com

4. SIV INVESTMENT GUIDELINES

4.1 Introduction to Australia's Significant Investor Visa and Investor Visa programs

On 25 May 2012, the former Labor Government announced the introduction of the Significant Investor Visa (SIV), aimed at allowing Australia to compete effectively for high net worth individuals seeking investment immigration. In return for providing Australia with a new source of investment capital and increasing the pool of funds managed in Australia, successful applicants do not have to meet normal visa requirements such as a points test or upper age limit.

In July 2015, the Australian Government implemented major changes to the SIV program. One of the key changes was the introduction of a Complying Investment Framework (CIF), which stipulated three categories of complying investments, namely Venture Capital and Growth Private Equity Funds (VCPEF) investments, Emerging Companies Investments, and Balancing Investments.

The policy intent of these changes was to channel SIV monies into areas of the Australian economy which the Australian Government believed required more capital support, which would more effectively promote investment, innovation and commercialisation of Australian ideas, research and development.

In July 2021, the SIV program and the CIF were further revised. Among other changes, the mandated investment amount for VCPEF was increased and that for Balancing Investments reduced. At the same time, changes were also made to another visa category, the Investor Visa (IV), with the revised CIF introduced to the IV as well.

4.2 Immigration Program Overview

Both the SIV and IV are provisional Visas (Provisional SIV or Provisional IV) (Subclass 188). Investors who satisfy the conditions of the provisional Visas are eligible to apply for permanency residency in Australia (Permanent SIV or Permanent IV) (Subclass 888). To be granted a Provisional SIV or Provisional IV, a client must be nominated by an Australian state or territory. Each state or territory may have its own specific nomination requirements, including the types of investments that must be held. A nominated client will then be invited to make an application to the Department of Home Affairs. SIV holders will be able to extend their provisional visas if they do not meet the investment and residence thresholds in the required timeframe.

4.3 Provisional Visa Requirements (from 1 July 2021)

The table below sets out the key requirements of the Provisional SIV and Provisional IV.

Significant Investor Visa (Subclass 188)	Investor Visa (Subclass 188)
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Complying Investment of $5 million (held for the duration of the provisional visa)• Functional English (or pay 2nd VAC)• Reside in Australia for an average of 40 days/year for primary visa holders or 180 days per/year for secondary visa holders before applying for the permanent visa• Has access to an extension stream (for up to 4 years)• Nominated by a State or Territory government, or Austrade	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Complying Investment of $2.5 million (held for the duration of the provisional visa)• 65 points on business innovation and investment points test• Functional English (or pay 2nd VAC)• Under 55 (unless waived by nominator)• Reside in Australia for at least two years• Nominated by a State or Territory government

The Provisional SIV and Provisional IV are valid for 5 years. Once the client has held a Provisional SIV or Provisional IV for at least 3 years, they can (if again nominated by a state or territory) apply for a Permanent SIV or Permanent IV, provided they have met all the eligibility requirements of the Permanent SIV or Permanent IV. Once granted a Permanent SIV or Permanent IV, the client is no longer required to hold complying investments, but must have a realistic commitment to maintain business or investment activities in Australia.

4.4 Provisional Visa Application Process

4.4.1 Step 1 – Expression of Interest and Nomination

If you are interested in applying for a Provisional SIV or Provisional IV, you must submit an expression of interest (EOI) through SkillSelect. You also need to be nominated by a State or Territory Government to receive an invitation to lodge a visa application.

4.4.2 Step 2 – Provisional Visa Application

Once the nomination application is accepted and the EOI is selected you will receive an invitation to lodge an application for the Provisional SIV or Provisional IV.

You then have 60 days to submit the visa application and supporting documentation to the Department of Home Affairs (DHA).

4.4.3 Step 3 – Invest in Complying Investments

If your application is satisfactory, DHA will invite you in writing to make the complying SIV or IV investments. You must make the investment within the timeframe stated in the letter.

4.4.4 Step 4 – Grant of Provisional SIV or Provisional IV

Once DHA is satisfied that your visa application meets all the relevant criteria, including that you have made the complying SIV or IV investments, you will be eligible to be granted a Provisional SIV or Provisional IV.

4.4.5 Step 5 – Permanent Visa Application

The Provisional SIV or Provisional IV provides the opportunity to apply for a Permanent SIV or Permanent IV after three years of complying investment activity while holding a Provisional SIV or Provisional IV, provided you have met all the other eligibility requirements of the Permanent SIV or Permanent IV.

Once a Permanent SIV or Permanent IV has been granted, you do not need to maintain complying investments (however you must have a realistic commitment to maintain your business and investment activity in Australia) and are considered a permanent resident for the purpose of Australia's foreign investment laws.

4.5 What are the current investment guidelines?

The 'Complying Investment Framework' (CIF) stipulates three categories of complying investments, namely VCPEF, 'Emerging Companies Investments', and 'Balancing Investments'.

Significant Investor Visa applicants who were invited to apply for the Significant Investor Visa from 1 July 2015 to 30 June 2021 (Old SIV Regime) must invest at least $0.5 million in VCPEFs, at least $1.5 million in 'Emerging Companies Investments' and the balance of $3 million in 'Balancing Investments'.

Significant Investor Visa applicants who were invited to apply for the Significant Investor Visa on or after 1 July 2021 (New SIV Regime) must invest at least $1.0 million in VCPEFs, at least $1.5 million in 'Emerging Companies Investments' and the balance of $2.5 million in 'Balancing Investments'.

Investor Visa applicants who were invited to apply for the Investor Visa on or after 1 July 2021 (New IV Regime) must invest at least $0.5 million in VCPEFs, at least $0.75 million in 'Emerging Companies Investments' and the balance of $1.25 million in 'Balancing Investments'.

4.6 What are the requirements for VCPEF investments?

A VCPEF is a form of investment that provides capital to typically new, innovative or fast-growing unlisted companies. They are governed by the Venture Capital Act 2002. In order to be an eligible VCPEF for SIV or IV purposes, the VCPEF must be registered under the Early Stage Venture Capital Limited Partnership (ESVCLP) or Venture Capital Limited Partnership (VCLP) programmes operated by the Australian Government's Department of Industry and Science.

Investments in VCPEFs require three elements of proof for SIV and IV applicants:

- Proof that funds are taken upfront by the fund vehicle (or held in escrow in a cash management trust or bank account as security)
- Proof of entering into a commitment with the VCPEF within 6 months from the date the provisional visa is granted, and
- Proof that a substantial part of the total amounts held for investment by the VCPEF have been invested during the period the SIV or IV is in effect.

4.7 What are the requirements for Emerging Companies Investments?

To be an eligible 'Emerging Companies Investment', the investment must be invested through one or more managed investment funds, the fund must maintain a minimum of 20 investee companies within 3 months of the fund's inception date and may be open or close ended managed funds or listed investment companies. The permitted investments for 'emerging companies' include:

- Securities in companies with a market cap of less than $500 million at the time of first purchase. These securities can be in ASX listed companies or (subject to a limit of 20% of the fund's net assets) unlisted companies.
- Other Australian exchange listed companies (subject to a limit of 20% of the fund's net assets).
- Previously held shares in companies which have grown their market cap over $500 million (subject to a limit of 30% of the fund's net assets).

- Derivatives for risk management purposes only.
- Cash (subject to a limit of 20% of the fund's net assets).

Additionally, the manager of the fund must have and maintain $100m in firm wide funds under management.

4.8 What are the requirements for a Balancing Investment?

To be an eligible 'Balancing Investment', the investment must be invested through one or more managed investment funds. A Balancing Investment includes investments in:

- Companies, A-REITs, infrastructure trusts, including their ordinary equity, preferred equity, convertible bonds or corporate issued floating rate notes listed on an Australian securities exchange.
- Corporate bonds or notes issued by an Australian exchange listed entity (or wholly owned subsidiary of the Australian listed entity) or investment grade rated Australian corporate bonds or notes rated by an AFS licensed debt rating agency.
- Deferred annuities issued by Australian registered life companies but cannot commence paybacks during the provisional visa period.
- Real property in Australia (subject to restrictions around investing in residential real estate).

Balancing Investment funds may be open or closed ended managed funds or listed investment companies.

Additionally, the manager of the fund must have and maintain $100m in firm wide funds under management.

4.9 Changes to investment rules

It is intended the Fund will be a complying investment under the New SIV Regime, the Old SIV Regime, and the New IV Regime. However, the investment amounts to be made into each of the three categories of investments under the 'Complying Investment Framework' will differ for each Investor, depending on when that Investor was invited to apply for the SIV or IV.

Any further changes to 'Complying Investment Framework' announced by the Australian Government will be adjusted and updated accordingly in this Offer.

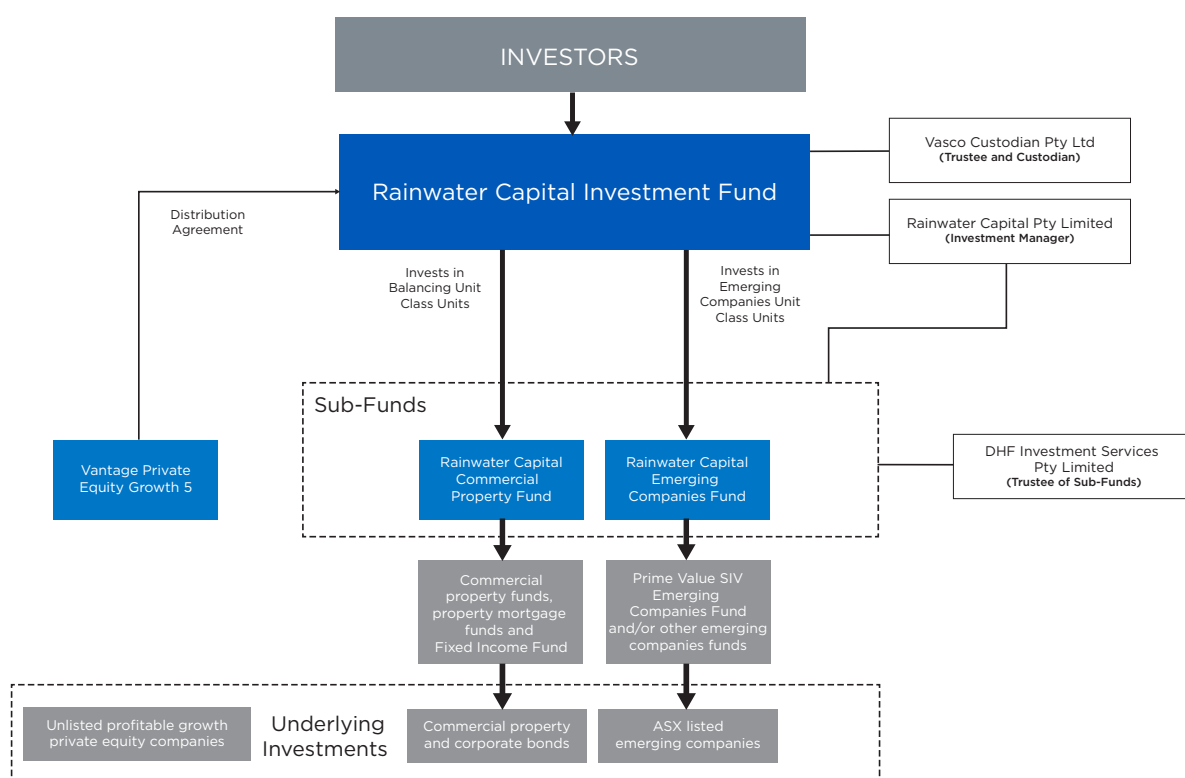

5. STRUCTURE OF THE FUND

5.1 Overview

The Fund structure is as follows:

- i) The Fund is a unit trust established under, and governed by, Australian law;
- ii) The Fund has two classes of Units, the Emerging Companies Unit Class and the Balancing Unit Class;
- iii) The Fund will be operated as an open-ended fund, meaning the Fund remains open to new Investors;
- iv) The Trustee and Custodian of the Fund is Vasco Custodians Pty (Vasco), an Australian company limited by shares. Vasco Custodians Pty Ltd is the holder of AFS licence no 530 682 and is regulated by ASIC; and
- v) The Trustee has appointed Rainwater Capital Pty Ltd as Investment Manager of the Fund. DHF Investment Services Pty Ltd as trustee of the Sub-Funds has also appointed Rainwater Capital Pty Ltd as Investment Manager of the Sub-Funds.

The parties involved in the Fund can be represented as follows:

Investors will become Unitholders in the Fund and will subscribe for Units in the Fund in accordance with the terms of the Fund agreements, which set out the rights of Unitholders and rules for the establishment and operation of the Fund.

The Units acquired by Investors will be in two different classes:

- Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Unit Class: funds subscribed for the Emerging Companies Unit Class will be invested in the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund and will only have a right to the income and capital received from the Fund's investment in the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund.
- Rainwater Capital Balancing Unit Class: funds subscribed for Balancing Unit Class will be invested in the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund and will only have a right to the income and capital received from the Fund's investment in the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund.

Unless Investors otherwise notify the Trustee on their Application Form, their total investment amount will be allocated as follows.

For Significant Investor Visa applicants who were invited to apply for the Significant Investor Visa from 1 July 2015 to 30 June 2021 (Old SIV Regime): $500,000 will be allocated to VPEG5, $1,500,000 will be invested in Emerging Companies Unit Class Units, and the balance of $3,000,000 will be invested in Balancing Unit Class Units.

For Significant Investor Visa applicants who were invited to apply for the Significant Investor Visa on or after 1 July 2021 (New SIV Regime): $1,000,000 will be allocated to VPEG5, $1,500,000 will be invested in Emerging Companies Unit Class Units, and the balance of $2,500,000 will be invested in Balancing Unit Class Units.

For Investor Visa applicants who were invited to apply for the Investor Visa on or after 1 July 2021 (New IV Regime): $500,000 will be allocated to VPEG5, $750,000 will be invested in Emerging Companies Unit Class Units, and the balance of $1,250,000 will be invested in Balancing Unit Class Units.

Any amount invested above the Minimum Investment will be invested in Balancing Units, unless otherwise directed by the Investor to the the Trustee in the Application Form. Investors may also choose to invest only in particular Unit classes.

Investors will not be able to withdraw their Units for four years from their date of issue. Once the four-year period has expired, it is expected that Investors will be able to redeem their investment by giving 60 days' notice, subject to available liquidity at that time. Because the only assets the Fund will hold are units in the underlying fund, the liquidity of the Fund will depend on the liquidity of the underlying fund, which in turn is dependent on the assets the underlying fund holds. More information about the investment strategies for each of the underlying fund appears later in this section.

At the expiry of the four-year period during which withdrawals are not permitted, Investors may submit a request to withdraw some or all of their Units from the Fund. The Trustee does not guarantee that the amount available for withdrawal will permit an Investor to withdraw any or all of their Units.

Investors will be entitled to transfer their Units to other Qualifying Investors with the Trustee's consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld.

5.2 Qualifying Investors

This Offer is only available to wholesale clients within the meaning of the Corporations Act. A wholesale client means an Investor who:

- invests $500,000 or more in the Fund or
- if investing less than $500,000:
 - (i) provides a certificate from a qualified accountant (substantially in a form provided by and available from the Trustee) that states that the Investor has net assets of at least $2.5 million or has a gross income for each of the last two financial years of at least $250,000; or
 - (ii) is a professional investor (including the holder of an Australian financial services licence, a person who controls more than $10 million or a person that is a listed entity or a related body corporate of a listed entity); and
 - (iii) if residing in Singapore, can also demonstrate (in addition to one of the above) they are an accredited investor or certain other person prescribed under s305 of the Securities and Futures Act by providing a declaration to that effect and suitable documentary evidence.

The Trustee has the discretion to accept applications from people who are not Qualifying Investors, provided these people are otherwise permitted by law to participate in the Offer.

The Trustee reserves the right to reject an application without providing a reason.

5.3 Issue of Units

Units will be issued using the Unit Price calculated as at the last day of the month in which a completed Application Form and the Application Monies are received, and are issued at the start of the following month. Units are expected to be issued within 10 Business Days of the end of the month in which a completed Application Form and Application Monies are received.

Further detail about applying for Units in the Fund is outlined in section 12.

5.4 Unit Price

The Unit Price for the initial issue of Units in the Fund is $1 per Unit.

At any other time, the Unit Price will be based on the underlying value of the Fund's assets and is calculated in accordance with the terms of the Trust Deed. The redemption price for a Unit is also based on the underlying value of the Fund's assets. This price may be different from the price originally paid for the Unit as the Fund's assets are re-valued. Further detail about the Fund's valuation policy is outlined in section 3.4.

Where the Trustee is reliant on third party information to calculate the Unit Price this determination may be delayed until such time as the information is received.

Unit prices for the Emerging Companies Unit Class and the Balancing Unit Class will be updated on the Trustee's website from time to time.

The price that will apply to your application may be different from that on the website as the one that will apply will be the one calculated after you submit your application.

5.5 Redemptions

You will not be able to withdraw your investment in the Fund until after the fourth anniversary of the date on which your Units were first issued (and excluding the date of any reinvestment). Following this date, you may submit a withdrawal request to the Trustee setting out the number of Units you wish to withdraw from the Fund.

The Trustee does not guarantee that the amount of cash available in the Fund will be sufficient for an Investor to withdraw all of their investment.

The Trustee will use reasonable endeavours to satisfy valid withdrawal requests, however, it is not obliged to do so where there is sufficient cash available in the Fund or the Trustee considers it would be a material disadvantage to the Fund if some or all requests were met.

Withdrawal requests that can be satisfied will be done so within 60 days of receipt of requests.

Only the proceeds from realisation of assets of the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund will be used to satisfy withdrawal requests from Emerging Companies Unit Class Investors, and only the proceeds from realisation of assets of the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund will be used to satisfy withdrawal requests from Balancing Unit Class Investors.

Where there is insufficient liquidity to satisfy all Withdrawal Requests, redemptions will be satisfied on a pro-rata basis until all Withdrawal Requests are satisfied.

Withdrawal Request Forms are available online at www.vascofm.com

Under the terms of the Trust Deed, in certain situations, the Trustee is able to, amongst other things, suspend all redemptions or compulsorily redeem Investors where it believes that doing so is in the best interests of Investors in the Fund as a whole.

Your ability to withdraw your VCPEF investment will depend upon the liquidity of the VCPEF and you should refer to the relevant disclosure document.

5.6 Distributions

Distributions are expected to be paid to Investors' nominated bank accounts annually within 60 business days following the end of each Half-Year and Financial Year.

The Trustee reserves the right to make distributions more frequently in its absolute discretion.

Distributions to Investors will take into account the number of Units held by the Investor on the day each distribution is calculated.

The Trustee may also decide not to distribute amounts which it reasonably considers necessary to meet any outgoings or liabilities (actual or contingent) in respect of the Fund including any amounts required for tax withholdings. Taxes paid or withheld that are allocable to one or more Investors will be deemed to have been distributed to such Investors for the purposes of determining the above calculations.

5.7 Reinvestment

Capital distributions paid by any VCPEF investments will be receipted into the Vasco Cash Enhanced Fund and then reinvested in the Balancing Unit Class.

All other distributions are expected to be paid to the Investors' nominated account.

The Investment Manager of the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund is Rainwater Capital Pty Limited. For further details please see section 6.1.

5.9.2 Key Features of the Sub-Fund

- ✓ The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may invest in one or more SIV and IV compliant unlisted commercial property funds. Unlisted commercial property funds have the following features.
 - Unlisted commercial property funds have the potential to provide investors with returns in the form of capital gains and regular distribution income;
 - Unlisted commercial property funds are not listed on the ASX, and will be less exposed to share market risk and volatility;
 - Unlisted commercial property funds can be closed-ended or open-ended funds, and are generally less liquid than listed property funds;
 - Closed-ended funds are typically single asset funds and run for a fixed-term of three to seven years, and investors generally cannot redeem until the underlying property is sold, proceeds are distributed and the fund is wound up;
 - Open-ended funds typically have rolling investment terms of between three to five years, with a liquidity event at the end of each investment term. Some funds allow limited withdrawals on a quarterly or half-yearly basis;
 - While some unlisted commercial property funds are always opened to new investments, others are only open to new investments under certain conditions, such when they need to raise capital for new acquisitions of property.
- ✓ The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may also invest in one or more SIV and IV compliant unlisted property mortgage funds that provide loans to borrowers for the development, investment, acquisition or improvement of commercial property. Unlisted property mortgage funds have the following features.
 - Unlisted property mortgage funds can be pooled mortgage funds or contributory mortgage funds;
 - In a pooled mortgage fund, the fund's portfolio is made up of a 'pool' of various loans and investors receive distributions based on the overall income of all mortgages within the fund. Most pooled mortgage funds allow investors to withdraw some or all of their capital after a required notice period.
 - In contributory mortgage funds, investors can decide which specific mortgage(s) to invest in and receive distributions based only on the income derived from those specific loans. Contributory mortgage funds usually allow investors to withdraw their capital only when the relevant loan is repaid.
 - While some pooled mortgage funds are always opened to new investments, contributory mortgage funds are usually only open to new investments under certain conditions, such when they need to raise capital for providing a specific loan.
- ✓ As suitable unlisted commercial property fund and unlisted property mortgage fund investment opportunities are not always available, to ensure compliance with SIV and IV regulations, the Fund may invest in the Fixed Income Fund and/or other fixed income funds, until such time as a suitable unlisted commercial property fund or unlisted property mortgage fund investment opportunity becomes available.
- ✓ The fund may also invest up to 20% of the fund's net assets in cash held by Australian ADIs.

5.9.3 Investment Objective, Strategy and Security

The objective of the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund is to preserve capital - avoiding excessive risk while providing a commensurate investment return to Investors. The Sub-Fund also seeks to ensure sufficient liquidity to allow Investors who wish to withdraw their investment in the Sub-Fund (after the fourth anniversary of their investment) to do so.

The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund seeks to invest in one or more SIV and IV compliant unlisted commercial property funds that invest in commercial property, including but not limited to properties in the industrial, office, retail, hospitality and healthcare property sectors. These funds should have the potential to pay attractive distributions and exhibit the potential for capital growth.

The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may invest in unlisted commercial property funds that are involved in development projects as part of their investment portfolio, but will not invest in funds that are exclusively focused on development projects. The investment criteria for these funds where some development is occurring will be different to the criteria for commercial property funds which are focused on leasing activity. In addition, a distribution payment to investors from funds that engage in development activity cannot be guaranteed.

5. Structure of the Fund

The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may also invest in SIV and IV compliant unlisted property mortgage funds that provide loans to borrowers for the development, investment, acquisition or improvement of commercial property. All loans within such investments may be secured by either a first or second mortgage of commercial real asset as the primary source of security.

The SIV and IV regulations require that a managed investment fund must be invested in complying investments at all times. As suitable unlisted commercial property fund and unlisted property mortgage fund investment opportunities are not always available, to ensure compliance with SIV and IV regulations, the Fund may invest in the Fixed Income Fund and/or other fixed income funds, until such time as a suitable unlisted commercial property fund or unlisted property mortgage fund investment opportunity become available.

The Fixed Income Fund is a SIV and IV compliant fund that invests in corporate/bank bonds or notes. It may be comprised of the following investment categories.

- Cash (cash held in interest-bearing bank accounts, bank accepted bills of exchange, negotiable certificate of deposits, corporate promissory notes);
- Corporate/bank issued floating rate notes listed on an Australian securities exchange; and
- Corporate/bank bonds or notes issued by an Australian exchange listed entity (or wholly owned subsidiary of the Australian listed entity) or investment grade rated Australian corporate bonds or notes rated by an AFS licensed debt rating agency.

The Fixed Income Fund is not constrained by index weightings or sector limits, is not permitted to borrow, and can use derivatives for risk management purposes. The Fixed Income Fund may also invest in other managed funds that invest in accordance with these authorised investments and guidelines, including funds managed by Prime Value.

The Fixed Income Fund aims to provide a regular income with capital stability and allows withdrawal on a daily basis. The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may invest in other SIV and IV compliant fixed income funds with similar objectives as the Fixed Income Fund.

As and when necessary, the Investment Manager may make withdrawals from the Fixed Income Fund and/or other fixed income funds that the Fund invests in, and invest the proceeds in available unlisted commercial property fund or unlisted property mortgage fund investment opportunities that meet the Fund's investment criteria.

The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may also invest up to 20% of the fund's net assets in cash held by Australian ADIs.

The fund will look to provide ensure sufficient liquidity to allow Investors who wish to withdraw their investment in the fund (after the fourth anniversary of their investment) to do so, through one or more of the following strategies.

- ✓ Investing in open-ended unlisted commercial property funds with rolling investment terms, and as and when necessary, redeeming the Fund's investments during the liquidity event at the end of each investment term;
- ✓ Investing in closed-ended unlisted commercial property funds with relatively short investment terms (generally not exceeding three years);
- ✓ Where an unlisted commercial property fund that the Fund invests in allows limited withdrawals on a quarterly or half-yearly basis, to make such withdrawals as and when necessary;
- ✓ Investing in unlisted pooled mortgage funds that allow investors to withdraw some or all of their capital after a required notice period.
- ✓ Investing in contributory mortgage funds with relatively short investment terms (generally not exceeding two years);
- ✓ Allocating sufficient assets to cash, the Fixed Income Fund and/or other fixed income funds, in anticipation of any redemption requests.

The Trustee, Investment Manager and Administration Manager are entitled to be paid or reimbursed for all expenses properly incurred in connection with performing their duties and obligations in the day-to-day operation of the Fund. Such expenses include, but are not limited to, any additional costs associated with the administration or distribution of income, asset management and the management of defaults and arrears.

The Trust Deed for the Fund sets out the rights of the Trustee to be paid or reimbursed for expenses of the Fund reasonably and properly incurred by the Trustee in the proper performance of its duties, and include a non-exhaustive list of the types of the expenses to which the Trustee is entitled to be paid or reimbursed.

7.5 Change to fees and other costs

The Trustee may change the above fees and expenses charged to Investors by giving at least 30 days written notice to Investors, subject to any fee limits in the Trust Deed. The Trustee may agree with any Investor any fee arrangements with that Investor which are different to the fees set out above.

7.6 Goods and services tax

Unless otherwise stated, all fees quoted in the IM are quoted exclusive of GST.

7.7 Interest of application monies

Interest earned on application monies is retained by the Trustee.

7.8 Referral fees from third party fund managers

The Investment Manager adopts the policy of not retaining referral fees, if any, paid to it by fund managers of the funds that the Fund invests in, and /or by the General Partner of VPEG5. Any referral fees received by the Investment Manager from these fund managers and /or the General Partner of VPEG5 may (at the absolute discretion of the Investment Manager) be paid to the referrers who refer investors to the Investment Manager for the purpose of investing in the Fund.

7.9 Waiver, deferral or rebate of fees

The Trustee or Investment Manager may accept lower fees and expenses than it is entitled to receive, or may defer payment of those fees and expenses for any time. If payment is deferred, then the fee will accrue until paid. In addition, the Investment Manager or Trustee may waive, negotiate or rebate their fees.

All investments involve varying degrees of risk. While there are many factors that may impact on the performance of any investment, the section below summarises some of the major risks that investors should be aware of when investing in the Fund.

Before investing, prospective investors should consider whether the Fund is a suitable investment, having regard to their personal investment objectives, financial position, and particular needs and circumstances. Investors should also consider and take into account the level of risk with which they are comfortable, the level of returns they require, as well as their frequency and nature, and their investment time horizon. Investors should seek professional advice in setting their investment objectives and strategies.

The risks described below are not exhaustive, and whether a risk is specifically referred to in this section or not, that risk may have a material effect on the performance and value of the Fund.

Importantly, investors should note that the value of an investment in the Fund, and income received by investors, may rise or fall and, consequently, investors may suffer losses (including the loss of all of their capital investment in the Fund).

8. RISKS

8.1 Risks applicable to all investments in the Fund

8.1.1 SIV and IV risk

Investment in the Fund may not be considered a complying significant investment and accordingly the Department of Home Affairs may not grant a Permanent SIV or Permanent IV or revoke an Investor's Provisional SIV or Provisional IV. Alternatively, the SIV or IV requirements may change during the life of the Fund and investments may no longer be considered complying significant investments.

The Investment Manager has taken reasonable steps to ensure that it is making SIV and IV compliant investments. However, Investors should seek independent legal advice to ensure that an investment in the Fund is a complying significant investment.

8.1.2 Investment risk

The value of an investment may rise or fall, distributions may or may not be paid and an Investor's capital may or may not be returned. No guarantee is made by the Trustee, the Investment Manager, nor any of their directors, associates or consultants on the performance of the Fund.

8.1.3 Manager Risk

The Trustee and Investment Manager may elect to retire or may be replaced as the Trustee or Investment Manager of the Fund or the services of key personnel of the Trustee and Investment Manager may become unavailable for any reason.

There is always a risk that the Trustee and Investment Manager may fail to identify and adequately manage the investment risks in the Fund's portfolio and thus affect the ability to pay distributions or reduce the value of the Units.

Operational risks of the Trustee, the Investment Manager and the Administration Manager include the possibility of systems failure, regulatory requirements, documentation risk, fraud, legal risk and other unforeseen circumstances.

The Fund is relying on the ability of the Investment Manager and its investment professionals to achieve the Fund's objectives when investing in projects. If the Investment Manager and/or its investment professionals were not to continue in their respective roles, the Fund may not be able to achieve its objectives.

8.1.4 Third party manager risk

The Unit Classes may invest in certain other Australian managed investment schemes, which will be managed by third-party managers.

There is a risk a third-party manager or its investment strategy will not achieve its performance objectives or produce returns that compare favourably against its peers, which may result in lower returns or a capital loss for the relevant Unit Classes which has invested in that fund.

8.1.5 Key personnel risk

The Trustee and Investment Manager both rely on a small number of professionals. In particular, Mr Craig Dunstan is a key individual of the Trustee, and Wallace Woon is a key individual of the Investment Manager, which is responsible for implementing the investment strategy of the Fund. If either of these parties or any other key personnel from the Trustee or the Investment Manager resigned, or were terminated, a suitable replacement may not be achieved within a reasonable time frame, and any replacement would be subject to similar risks.

8.1.6 Legal, regulatory and compliance risk

Changes in government legislation, regulation and policies generally could materially adversely affect the operating results of the Fund. Although unable to predict future policy changes, the Investment Manager intends to manage this risk by monitoring and reacting to any potential regulatory and policy changes.

The operation of a funds management business in Australia is subject to significant regulation by Australian government authorities, including without limitation the ASIC, the Australian Transactions Reporting and Analysis Centre, the Foreign Investment Review Board and the Australian Consumer and Competition Commission. There is a risk that the Fund may not comply at all times with its various obligations under government regulations, and this may result in the loss of authorisations of the AFSL held by the Trustee thereby preventing the continued operation of the Fund.

8.1.7 Liquidity risk

The Fund is an illiquid investment.

An investment in the Fund should be viewed as illiquid. There is currently no secondary market for units in the Fund and it is unlikely that any active secondary market will develop. There are substantial restrictions upon the transferability of Units under the Fund Agreements and applicable securities laws.

In particular, there will be no withdrawal rights during the first four years of investment. Furthermore, if a withdrawal request is submitted, only the proceeds from realisation of assets of the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund will be used to satisfy withdrawal requests from Emerging Companies Unit Class Investors, and only assets of the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund will be used to satisfy withdrawal requests from Balancing Unit Class Investors. Those assets may be insufficient to satisfy withdrawal request in full or at all.

Investors must also note withdrawal requests do not need to be met if the Trustee considers it would be a material disadvantage to the Fund if some or all requests were met.

You should only consider an investment in this Fund if you are not likely to require access to your investment in the medium term.

8.1.8 Information not complete or accurate

The Investment Manager is not in a position to confirm the completeness, genuineness or accuracy of any information or data included in this IM. A significant amount of the material provided in this IM was supplied by third parties. This information has not been audited or independently reviewed.

8.1.9 Tax risk

Tax regulations can change and changes can be adverse. Investors should consider their own circumstances before investing.

8.1.10 Value of unit risk

The value of a Unit may rise or fall. A fall in the value of the Fund's assets may result in a fall in the Unit price. Asset values are affected by a number of factors which may include supply and demand of competing property assets, interest rates, market sentiment, government policy, taxation and general market conditions.

8.1.11 Operating history

The Fund has a short operating history upon which Investors may base an evaluation of its likely performance.

The performance of the Balancing Unit Class will depend on the Investment Manager's ability to carry out the proposed investment strategy of the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund successfully.

The performance of the Emerging Companies Unit Class will depend on the Investment Manager's ability to carry out the proposed investment strategy of the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund successfully.

8.1.12 Fees and expenses

The Fund will incur fees and expenses regardless of whether it is successful. The Fund will pay Investment Manager fees, Trustee fees and administration fees whether or not it receives its returns. In addition, the Fund will also be required to pay annual Investment Manager fees, Trustee fees and administration fees whether the funds raised are fully utilised or not. The Fund must therefore ensure that sufficient liquidity is maintained in order to meet these and other expenses. The Trustee and the Investment Manager expect to incur significant costs and expenses in seeking to source, evaluate, structure, negotiate, close, monitor and exit the investment including, but not limited to, financial, legal, technical, regulatory, commercial advisers, engaged to assist the Trustee and the Investment Manager in seeking to source, evaluate, structure, negotiate, close, monitor and exit the investment. There can be no assurance that the Fund will be successful in being able to recover these fees and expenses from a successfully closed investment. These amounts may be significant and could have an adverse impact on the return that Investors might otherwise realise.

8.1.13 Currency risk

The Fund's investment will be denominated in Australian dollars and therefore the weakening of a country's currency relative to the Australian dollar will negatively affect the value of the Fund from the perspective of an international Investor. Among the factors that may affect currency values are trade balances, the level of short-term interest rates, differences in relative values of similar assets in different currencies, long-term opportunities for investment and capital appreciation, central bank policy and political developments.

8.1.14 Thinly-capitalised management

The Investment Manager does not have any material independent financial resources. If an action or claim is brought against the Investment Manager and such claim is not covered by the professional indemnity or directors' and officers' insurance policies arranged by or on behalf of the Investment Manager, the Fund cannot assure that the Investment Manager will have sufficient financial resources to cover any amounts payable under any such claim. The Fund is reserved to certain sophisticated investors who are required to be aware of the risks involved in an investment in the Fund and who accept that they will have recourse only to the Fund's assets in existence at any given time.

8.1.15 Cyber Security risk

Investors should be aware that while the Trustee has implemented technologies, processes, and practices designed to protect its networks, devices, programs, and data (or Information Technology Systems) such Information Technology Systems may still be subjected to malicious attack, damage, or unauthorised access.

Such Information Technology Systems may include the storage of information concerning an Investor's identity, financial interests or other personal details provided to the Trustee in connection with their investment in the Fund.

In the event serious harm is a likely outcome of a breach of the Trustee's Information Technology Systems, the Trustee or Investment Manager (as may be required) will notify the affected individuals and recommend steps that ought to be taken in response to the breach. The Trustee may also be required to notify any regulatory authority as required by law.

8.1.16 Multi Class Risk

Multiple classes of units are on issue for the Fund. Such classes of units may be referable to a particular asset with liabilities arising in respect of the asset being quarantined within the referable unit class. Recent case law has cast some doubt over this referability. You should be aware that, although the Trustee will seek to segregate assets and liabilities attaching to the various investment options of the Fund, the Trustee has a right to an indemnity from the Fund assets as a whole. This means the Trustee may draw upon the assets of one Investment option to the exclusion of another (for example, where there are no assets attributable to another investment option) to pay the costs of operating the Fund. Such assets and liabilities may therefore not be quarantined to a specific unit class.

8.1.17 COVID-19

Any number of unknown risks may arise as a result of the current COVID-19 pandemic, which may adversely impact the Fund and returns to Investors. These risks may be exacerbated by social and health issues and any related Government restrictions or policies implemented in response to the pandemic.

8.1.18 Other risks

It is important to note that not all risks can be foreseen. It is therefore not possible for the Investment Manager to protect the value of the Fund's investment from all risks. Investors should ensure they obtain appropriate professional advice regarding the suitability of an investment in the Fund having regard to their individual circumstances, including investment objectives, their level of borrowings, their financial situation and individual needs.

Neither the Trustee nor Investment Manager guarantees the repayment of investments or the performance of the Fund.

8.2 Risks applicable to Balancing Unit Class

Investment made by the Balancing Unit Class through the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund will be SIV and IV compliant investments in (amongst other things) commercial real estate and commercial real estate debt. The nature of the investment may be an equity position or other compliant structure. The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may also invest in the SIV and IV compliant Fixed Income Fund and/or other SIV and IV compliant fixed income funds, which invest mainly in listed or unlisted Australian corporate/bank bonds or notes.

8.2.1 Diversification risk

The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund will invest in unlisted commercial property funds and unlisted property mortgage funds that invest in Australian commercial property assets, which may include office, industrial, retail, hospitality, healthcare or other commercial properties. The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may also invest in the Fixed Income Fund and/or other fixed income funds which invests mainly in Australian corporate/bank bonds or notes. As such, the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund may not be adequately diversified by asset class or geography, and consequently the Rainwater Capital Balancing Units may be exposed to any events which have an adverse effect on the value of the underlying assets in the Australian commercial property markets or fixed income markets.

8.2.2 Underlying property risk

There may be external influences from time-to-time, including unforeseen items of expenditure which have not been budgeted for and loss of revenue, which adversely affect the value of underlying properties and mortgages held by the unlisted commercial property funds and unlisted property mortgage funds which the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund invests in. These may result in a reduction of distributions and returns as well as the capital value of the underlying properties and mortgages held by these funds.

8.2.3 Property Market risk

Real estate valuations fluctuate and the value of real property is determined by market forces at any particular time. This may result in the value of the properties and mortgages held by the unlisted commercial property funds and unlisted property mortgage funds in which the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund invests, increasing or declining in value. There is also a risk that at the end of the investment term or in the event that the mortgage security needs to be enforced, the properties may not be able to be sold for its current valuation or there may be delays in selling the properties, due to property market conditions or other factors.

8.2.4 Fixed Income Market risk

The Fixed Income Fund and/or other fixed income funds which the Fund may invest in, may be invested in a range of instruments including cash held in interest-bearing bank accounts, cash-equivalent securities, bank term deposits, bank-accepted bills of exchange, both listed and unlisted senior bonds/ floating rate notes, subordinated debt and preference shares/hybrid securities. Risks associated with these investment formats involve risks associated with the market concerned, whether a listed market such as the ASX, or an unlisted market such as the fixed income market. Over time, markets rise but may also sometimes produce falls in the value of investments in the Fixed Income Fund. The market price of listed and unlisted investments in which the Fixed Income Fund and/or other fixed income funds will invest will be affected by numerous factors including changes in interest rates, credit ratings and market attitude to credit risk, exchange rates, inflation, market sentiment and the rate of growth of domestic and foreign economies.

8.2.5 Planning and development risk

The unlisted commercial property funds and unlisted property mortgage funds in which the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund invests, may invest in development projects. There are numerous risks associated with such projects. For example, these funds could be exposed to adverse planning and building approvals and timing delays which could occur at any stage of the process, increasing the duration of projects and impacting negatively on cash flows. Approval may not be granted or granted on conditions these funds do not find acceptable. There is also a risk that contractors may default under the terms of a contract due to circumstances outside the control of these funds (for example, if a contractor becomes insolvent). This may in turn affect the value of the underlying property or property mortgage.

8.2.6 Environmental, Social and Governance risks

Land contamination, the presence of hazardous materials, asbestos or other contaminants may be found on the projects and have an adverse impact on the unlisted commercial property funds and unlisted property mortgage funds which the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund invests in.

Furthermore, changes in environmental policy, ratings systems (e.g., NABERS) and other legislated environmental outcomes may adversely affect the projects of these funds. Additionally, changes in social norms, outcomes or expectations, including the governance of investments, may impact positively or negatively on the Fund.

8.2.7 Interest rate risk

Fluctuations in market interest rates may impact the investments of the unlisted commercial property funds, unlisted property mortgage funds, the Fixed Income Fund and/or other fixed income funds in which the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund invests. For example, rising market interest rates may increase a variable loan borrower's interest costs, making it more difficult to make regular payments. Risk also arises with changes in market yields that change the value of interest rate investments. An increase in interest rates leads to a reduction in the value of a fixed interest investment and vice versa. This risk is usually greater for fixed interest investments that have longer maturities.

8.2.8 Return of Capital

The return of capital and the realisation of gains, if any, generally will occur only upon the partial or complete repayment of the investment. The Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund will invest in unlisted commercial property funds and unlisted property mortgage funds. While the Investment Manager will seek to manage the return of capital by investing across unlisted commercial property funds and unlisted property mortgage funds with staggered investment terms, the return of capital may not occur until 4 to 5 years after the initial investment. Before such time, there may be no capital return on the Balancing Investments made by Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund. Investors should also note that Fund operating expenses, including annual management fees, may exceed income from investments and therefore requiring the difference to be paid from the Fund's assets.

8.2.9 Valuation Risk

This is the risk that the valuation of the underlying properties of the unlisted commercial property funds and unlisted property mortgage funds in which the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund invests is inaccurate at the time of making the investment so that the amount realised on sale of such properties is less than would have been expected had the valuation been correct. There is also the risk that a valuer who provides an inaccurate valuation does not have or no longer has adequate professional indemnity insurance to cover the valuation on which the lender relies. In the event that the valuations obtained by purchasers to secure finance are below the purchase price, this may adversely impact their ability to settle.

8.2.10 Conflicts of Interest Risks

The Trustee and its directors may develop advisory and other relationships with a wide variety of clients and investors. As a result of obligations that arise from those relationships, including obligations of confidentiality, certain potentially suitable investment opportunities of which the Trustee becomes aware may not be offered or disclosed to the Fund.

8.3 Risks applicable to Emerging Companies Unit Class

8.3.1 Liquidity risk

Securities may lack liquidity because of insufficient trading activity and this may make it difficult or impossible for a trade to be executed within a favourable time frame. As a result, a potentially profitable trade may not be executed or it may not be possible to close out a position in a timely fashion leading to reduced profits and higher losses for the Prime Value Fund and/or other emerging companies funds that the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund invests in, the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund and consequently the Emerging Companies Unit Class.

8.3.2 Securities market risk

Changes in securities prices across the underlying relevant securities markets to which the Prime Value Fund and/or other emerging companies funds are exposed may adversely affect the performance of the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund and consequently the Emerging Companies Unit Class. Factors that drive changes in securities prices include changing profitability of companies and industries, economic cycles, volume of share issuance, investor demand levels, business confidence and government and central bank policies including the level and direction of interest rates and natural disasters and man-made disasters beyond the control of the relevant investment manager.

8.3.3 Company specific risk

Company specific risk is inherent in a particular stock's performance due to factors that are pertinent to that company. These factors will cause a stock's return to differ from that of the market. Actively managed funds look to gain exposure to this risk in order to attempt to outperform the market; however this exposure can also lead to underperformance.

8.3.4 Volatility risk

Volatility risk is the potential for the price of the Emerging Companies Unit Class investments to vary, sometimes markedly and over a short period of time.

Investments in equity securities are traditionally towards the higher end of the risk-return spectrum, and an investment in the Emerging Companies Unit Class should be considered a speculative investment. This may lead to fluctuations in the Unit price and/or amounts distributed to Investors, including fluctuation over the period between a redemption request being made and the time of redemption.

8.3.5 Small cap securities risk

The securities of small cap companies generally trade in lower volumes and are generally subject to greater and less predictable price changes than securities of larger capitalisation companies.

8.4 Risks applicable to VCPEF

The risks applicable to your VCPEF investment will be set out in the disclosure document for the VCPEF. You should consider that disclosure in detail prior to making an investment. A summary of some of the risks that may apply to a VCPEF investment is provided below.

8.4.1 Deal flow

Vantage Asset Management Pty Ltd may not be able to identify and reach agreement with a sufficient number of suitable investee companies or unit trusts.

8.4.2 Venture Capital investment risks

There are a number of risks that are specific to venture capital and early-stage investments:

- The inherent risks associated with investing in a company that has been recently established and does not have a long history of trading results;
- An investee company may suffer a loss of experienced staff;
- An investee company may not achieve market acceptance of its products and services;
- An investee company may be unable to scale its operations or manage its cash flows; and/or
- An investee company's customer database may reduce in quality and size.

Note that VPEG5 will not invest in venture capital investments but only into growth private equity opportunities.

8.4.3 No Public Market Risk

There is generally no secondary public market for Partnership Interests held in VPEG5 other than that provided by the General Partner. Investors are also subject to restrictions on transferring, selling or otherwise disposing of their Partnership Interests under securities laws of various jurisdictions and the Partnership Deed. In the case where an Investor may seek to transfer their Partnership Interests but can't, the Investor may nevertheless be permitted to redeem some or all of their Partnership Interests in VPEG5 in accordance with the redemption procedures set out in the VPEG5 Information Memorandum and the Partnership Deed.

In certain circumstances, as detailed in Section 8, of the VPEG5 Information Memorandum there is a risk that the General Partner may be prevented from satisfying redemption at the time the Investor is seeking to dispose of their partnership interests.

8.4.4 Asset Class Inherent Risk

Investment in private equity can be of a higher risk than traditional asset sectors, due to the illiquid nature of the asset class and some investments may fail which may result in a loss of some of investors' capital.

8.4.5 Competition

Competing businesses including those with superior products or technologies may adversely affect an investee company which may have a material adverse effect on returns to Investors. The introduction of new competitors or a more aggressive competitive response from existing participants may affect the operating performance of an investee company. There is no assurance that an investee company will be able to compete successfully in its marketplace and any increase in competition could adversely affect the earnings of an investee company.

Additionally, the markets in which the Investee Companies operate may also carry risks. These risks include:

- The overall market perception of the industry sector in which the Investee Company operates;
- Developments in patents or other intellectual property of any Investee Company or its competitors; and
- Announcements of technical innovations by an Investee Company or its competitors.

9. TAXATION INFORMATION

The information in this section is of a general nature and is not, nor is it intended to be, tax advice, and cannot be relied upon as such.

Each Investor's taxation position will depend on their individual circumstance and Investors should seek their own taxation advice in relation to the taxation of income distributed by the Fund, whether interest, dividends, capital gains, etc.

9.1 Tax File Number and Australian Business Number

It is not compulsory for an Investor to quote a Tax File Number (TFN), claim a valid exemption for providing a TFN, or (in certain circumstances) provide an Australian Business Number (ABN). However, if an Investor does not provide a TFN, exemption or ABN, tax will be required to be deducted from the Investor's distributions at the highest marginal tax rate plus Medicare levy and any other applicable Government charges (currently 47%).

9.2 Stamp Duty on the transfer of Units

As the register of the Fund will be maintained in Victoria, no marketable securities duty is payable on the transfer of Units in the Fund. Land rich or landholder duty may be payable in the issue, redemption or transfer of Units in any Australian jurisdiction where the Fund owns or has an interest in land.

9.3 Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA)

FATCA is United States (US) tax legislation that enables the US Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to identify and collect tax from US residents that invest in assets through non-US entities. If you are a US resident for tax purposes, you should note that the Fund is or is expected to be a 'Foreign Financial Institution' under FATCA and it intends to comply with its FATCA obligations, as determined by either the FATCA regulations or any inter-governmental agreement (IGA) entered into by Australia and the US for the purposes of implementing FATCA. Under these obligations, the Fund will have to obtain and disclose information about certain Investors to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). In order for the Fund to comply with its obligations, we will also request that you provide certain information about yourself, including your US Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN). We will only use such information for this purpose from the date the Fund is required to do so.

9.4 Common Reporting Standards (CRS)

CRS is the standard set by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) for the automatic exchange of information with revenue authorities for tax non-residents that invest in certain financial accounts. The standard covers both the identification of tax non-residents and reporting on the applicable financial accounts. The Trustee is a 'Reporting Financial Institution' under CRS and intends to comply with its CRS obligations under any relevant Australian laws and regulations, including obtaining and disclosing information about certain investors to the ATO or other foreign tax authorities as required. To facilitate these disclosures, Investors will be required to provide certain information such as that relating to their country of tax residence and their relevant taxpayer identification number (if applicable).

9.5 Foreign Investment Review Board (FIRB)

Investors are likely to be predominantly entities that are domiciled and operate outside Australia. As a result, the Fund will be characterised as a "foreign person" for purposes of the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 (Cth) (FTA), meaning that acquisitions of Australian assets by the Fund will be subject to the review processes contemplated by the FTA.

The Australian Government has established, under the FTA, related regulations and foreign investment policy, investment thresholds for foreign persons. Generally, the effect of these is that the acquisition of any asset (including shares in a company, instruments convertible into shares in a company and direct Project equity) for a consideration of $A 252 million or less and, in the case of shares in a company, for the acquisition of 20% or less of the fully-diluted issued capital of the company will be approved automatically on a notification-only basis. However, other requirements apply in respect of residential real estate, vacant land and shares or units in companies or unit trusts that have 50% or more of the value of their assets in Australian urban land. Other requirements also apply to the acquisition of interests in developed commercial real estate.

All of the investments by the Fund will be under this threshold and thus not require specific approval.

10. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

10.1 Summary of important documents

The following is a summary of material documents relevant to the Fund. The material documents are:

1. Trust Deed
2. Investment Management Agreement
3. Administration Agreement
4. Distribution Agreement
5. Escrow Agreement

You should consider whether it is necessary to obtain independent advice on any of the documents.

10.1.1 Trust Deed

The Trust Deed is the primary document that governs the way the Fund operates and sets out many of the rights, liabilities and responsibilities of both the Trustee and Investors.

The Trust Deed provides for the issue of different classes of Units. The terms of those classes are set out in the Trust Deed and the terms of issue for the relevant class of Unit. There will be two classes of Units on issue in the Fund; the Emerging Companies Unit Class which will only have rights to the income and capital of the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund, and the Balancing Unit Class which will only have rights to the income and capital of the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund. Subject to the Trust Deed, as an Investor you have the following rights:

- The right to share in any distributions;
- The right to attend and vote at meetings of Investors; and
- The right to participate in the proceeds of winding up of the Fund.

The Trust Deed contains provisions about convening and conducting meetings of Investors.

The Trustee can amend the Trust Deed without the approval of Investors provided the Trustee reasonably considers the changes will not adversely affect your rights. The Trust Deed can also be amended by a special resolution passed by Investors.

A copy of the Trust Deed is available free of charge by contacting the Trustee on +61 3 8352 7120.

10.1.2 Investment Management Agreement

The Investment Management Agreement is between the Investment Manager and the Trustee under which the Investment Manager provides investment management services to the Fund.

The Investment Management Agreement sets out the Investment Manager's obligations to the Trustee and to the Fund. The agreement also contains the fees payable to the Investment Manager for its services.

The Investment Management Agreement will remain in force until the Fund is wound up, unless the agreement is terminated earlier in accordance with its provisions. The agreement can be terminated by the Trustee if the Investment Manager is in material breach of the agreement, and that breach has not been remedied after a certain time. There are also provisions allowing the Trustee and Investment Manager to terminate if, for example, either party becomes insolvent.

10.1.3 Administration Agreement

The Administration Agreement is between the Administration Manager, the Trustee and the trustee of the Sub-Funds, under which the Administration Manager provides fund administration and accounting services to the Fund and the Sub-Funds.

The Fund Administration Agreement sets out the Administration Manager's obligations to the Trustee and to the Fund. The agreement also contains the fees payable to the Administration Manager for its services.

10.1.4 Distribution Agreement

Vantage Private Equity Management Partnerships, LP (ILP: L0000417A) (PE Manager) is the general partner and investment manager of VPEG5. It has appointed the Trustee as a distributor of VPEG5 pursuant to the terms of the Distribution Agreement.

Under the Distribution Agreement, the Trustee undertakes to market VPEG5 in return for the following fees:

1. An upfront fee equal to 2% of the amount of capital the Trustee sources for investment in VPEG5.
2. An annual fee equal to 0.5% of the capital subscribed to VPEG5 that was sourced by the Trustee, payable for four years.

10.1.5 Escrow Agreement

The PE Manager, each separate investor and the Trustee will enter an escrow agreement in respect of investors' monies to be invested into VPEG5. The Trustee is appointed to act as escrow agent to hold that amount in the Vasco Cash Enhanced Fund, which is a cash management trust. Holding funds in this way pending investment into a venture capital fund is a feature of the SIV and IV rules.

Under the agreement, the Trustee will hold the escrow amount on terms typical for an arrangement of this type. There are also usual indemnities and rights in favour of the Trustee as escrow agent, including an indemnity from the investors for all costs and expenses the escrow agent incurs in performing its duties under the agreement.

Any interest on the escrow amount will be reinvested.

10.2 Privacy

In applying to invest, you are providing the Trustee and the Investment Manager with certain personal details (your name, address etc.). The Trustee uses this information to establish and manage that investment for you.

Under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), you can access personal information about you held by the Trustee, except in limited circumstances. Please let the Trustee know if you think the information is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date. You can also tell the Trustee at any time not to pass on your personal information by advising it in writing.

If you do not provide the Trustee with your contact details and other information, then it may not be able to process your application to invest.

Under various laws and regulatory requirements, the Trustee may have to pass-on certain information to other organisations, such as the Australian Tax Office or the Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre (AUSTRAC).

By applying to invest, you give the Trustee permission to pass information it holds about you to other companies which are involved in helping it administer the Fund, or where they require it for the purposes of compliance with AML/CTF law or in connection with the holding of Application Money. The Trustee may also use your information to provide you with details of future investment offers made by it or the Investment Manager.

10.3 Complaints handling

Applicants and Investors who wish to make a complaint about the Fund should contact the Trustee by telephone on +61 3 8352 7120, by email to info@vascofm.com, or in writing addressed to:

The Complaints Officer
Vasco Custodians Pty Ltd
Level 4, 99 William Street
Melbourne VIC 3000

The Trustee will acknowledge a complaint as soon as practicable after receiving it and will notify the complainant of its decision, remedies and other information in accordance with the Trustee's complaints handling process.

10.4 Anti-money laundering law

The Trustee is required to comply with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Law). This means that the Trustee will require potential Investors to provide personal information and documentation in relation to their identity when they invest in the Fund. The Trustee may need to obtain additional information and documentation from Investors to process applications or subsequent transactions or at other times during the period of the investment.

The Trustee may need to identify:

12. APPLICATION FOR UNITS

12.1 Applications for Units

An application for Units can only be made by completing and lodging the Application Form that is included below (Application).

Instructions relevant to completion of the Application Form are set out in the form.

A completed original Application Form, including relevant identification documents, should be lodged by sending it to the Administration Manager at the following address:

Rainwater Capital Investment Fund
Vasco Fund Services Pty Limited
Level 4, 99 William Street
Melbourne, Victoria 3000
Australia

An Application constitutes an offer by the applicant to subscribe for Units on the terms and subject to the conditions set out in this IM.

If the Application Form for Units is not completed correctly or if the payment of the Application Monies is for the wrong amount, the Application may still be treated as a valid Application at the sole discretion of the Trustee.

However, where the payment is for less than the investment amount applied for, the Application will be deemed to be for the lower amount received, subject to the minimum investment amount of the Fund.

The minimum investment amount for the Fund is $5 million for SIV Investors and $2.5 million for IV Investors; however, the monies to be invested in the Venture Capital and Growth Private Equity Funds (VCPEFs) will not be invested in the Fund but will be instead held on escrow for investment in VPEG5. Of the remaining monies invested in the Fund, the Trustee will allocate the $1.5 million and $0.75 million (for SIV and IV Investors respectively) in the Emerging Companies Unit Class and the remainder in the Balancing Unit Class.

For investors that are neither SIV Investors nor IV Investors, the minimum investment amount for each of the Rainwater Capital Emerging Companies Fund and the Rainwater Capital Commercial Property Fund is $500,000.

The Trustee reserves the right to reject an Application (in whole or in part) without reason.

All Application Monies received in relation to the Offer will be held in the account of the Trustee until allotment of the relevant Units. Any interest earned on Application Monies will be retained by the Trustee and will not form part of the assets of the Fund.

12.2 Power of attorney

The Application Form contains a power of attorney that permits Vasco to complete the application for investment in the Vasco Cash Enhanced Fund and VPEG5 on an applicant's behalf. This is an important document and Vasco will not be able to make your investment in the VCPEF if it does not receive the power of attorney properly completed and signed.
